

GOVERNOR OF JAKARTA

Jakarta, 3 February 2020

Mr. Hugo Setzer
President of International Publishers Association
23, Avenue de France
1202 Geneva, Switzerland

Subject : Jakarta, Indonesia as Host City for the 2022 International Publishers Association World Congress

Dear Mr. Setzer,

Jakarta Capital City Government is honored to submit the proposal in our quest to host the International Publishers Association World Congress 2022.

Being the nation's capital, Jakarta is the center of the nation's art and culture development. The city has become the home for large publishers that contributed to the development of the nation's creative economy. Jakarta is regularly hosting international events from literary festival and book fair which have become the site of knowledge sharing for national and international writers and artists. The city definitely has adequate facilities and infrastructure to become the host of international congress which attracts a worldwide audience.

Please review our attached proposal for additional detail regarding the program planning for the International Publishers Association World Congress 2022.

With these words, I formally submit the candidature of the City of Jakarta to host the 2022 International Publishers Association World Congress.

I thank you for your kind consideration and please accept my best wishes for your good health.

Your sincerely,

Anies Baswedan, Ph.D.
Governor of Jakarta
